Subject: March 18 meeting back in Seattle

Folks,

We are back to having the March 18 meeting in Seattle – this is the one to walk through the Medford temperature trade in great detail. It turns out that Ecology didn't have an available conference room that day and the DEQ technical staff are participating via phone anyway. They also adjusted the times slightly (it's now 1:30 – 4:30, Seattle/ PST) , so I will attempt to uninvite you from the first meeting but keep the earlier time for the conference room for set-up, and then invite you to the meeting again at the slightly later start time. Watch your email and be sure to accept the new meeting time.
