Dru – I just remembered I promised to send this to you because you wanted to see if the states actually had water quality trading programs. I'd say that OR & ID do but WA's is still being developed (which is why they are participating in the Joint Regional Agreement project).

Idaho: <http://www.deq.idaho.gov/water-quality/surface-water/pollutant-trading.aspx>

Oregon: <http://www.deq.state.or.us/wq/trading/trading.htm#Pro>

Washington: <http://www.ecy.wa.gov/programs/wq/swqs/progs.html> (you have to scroll down to see the water quality trading section)
